

Use the following thoughts and questions to have a spiritual conversation as a family. Don't emphasize having the right answer, but focus on spending time discussing the Word as a family.

Scripture

Luke 17:11-19

Session Summary

When Jesus came walking near this group of lepers, their hearts lifted and they cried out to Him for mercy. For men as unclean as they, Jesus was their only hope. As He turned to them in mercy, He gave a simple command: "Go and show yourselves to the priests." Ten lepers found healing on the way to the priest, and the lepers were healed from their disease as they responded to the word of God. However, only one turned around to find Jesus again and true gratitude pierced his heart. He could not take another step without returning to the Healer to express his feelings in worship.

Conversation Questions

- Who would we consider to be the outcasts of our society?
- How has our family ever desperately called out to God for help?
- In what ways has God responded to our family with mercy?
- Why is it important for us to immediately obey the Word of God?

Family Challenge

Only one leper returned to Jesus after being healed to express his gratitude through worship. Sit down as a family and discuss why thankfulness is a form of worship. Write down ten blessings from God that your family can be thankful for this week:
