DECISION

LEADER READING

BEFORE ENCOURAGING

- » When we offer an opportunity for students to make a decision, please be looking for students from your group. If you see a student from your group make a decision, please encourage that student. Note: Guys encourage guys; girls encourage girls.
- » Be aware of invitation times when the speaker will ask students to stand up if they want to make a decision for Christ. Please be looking for students nearest you and stand with them.
- » Note: Sometimes students will raise their hand but not stand up. If you see students do this, please ask them if they would like for you to go with them.

BEGIN ENCOURAGING

- » First, ask the students why they came forward.
- » Discuss their spiritual background (e.g., what church do they go to? Does their family go to church? What do they know about a relationship with Christ?).
Note: A great question to ask is, “What do you believe it takes for a person to go to heaven?”
- » If you sense that a student is dealing with a crisis such as an eating disorder, depression, family issues, abuse or anything you are not comfortable discussing — you MUST let a Prestonwood staff member know.
- » If for any reason you are unsure of what to do in an encouraging situation, please don’t hesitate to let a Prestonwood staff member know.

FIRST-TIME DECISION TO ACCEPT CHRIST

- » Share with the students how they can know Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior.
- » Use the Romans Road. It is important that students have no doubt that they now have eternal life in Jesus Christ.
- » Romans Road: Romans 3:23; 6:23; 5:8; 10:8-10

REDEDICATION

If students state that they are rededicating their life to the Lord, ask very detailed questions concerning when they accepted Christ in the past. It is important that we are not giving a false sense of security to our students, but rather trying to find out if they have put their faith in Jesus Christ. We want students who leave our Encouragers Room to know for certain that they have eternal life so they will not doubt their salvation. If students are truly rededicating their life, ask them to pray a prayer of rededication to God.

BAPTISM

Some students will make a decision to be baptized during the Worship Service. If students make this decision, please find out when they accepted Christ. It is important that students get baptized after they put their faith in Jesus. At Prestonwood we believe in Believer's Baptism.

For every student who comes forward to accept Christ during the weekend, we want to talk to each one about Believer's Baptism. A great passage to share about the importance of getting baptized after salvation is Acts 8:26-40. Note: We will be baptizing on Sunday morning in the 11:00 a.m. Worship Service at Plano, the 11:30 a.m. Worship Service at North, and the 2:00 p.m. Español Worship Service at the Plano Campus.

BRINGING DECISION ENCOURAGING TO A CLOSE

- » Review what it means to be a Christian.
- » Have students fill out paperwork completely with their name, address, etc.
Note: The encourager needs to fill out the section regarding the student's decision.
- » Review baptism and the importance of what getting baptized means.
- » Pray with the students.
- » Smile! This is a time of celebration! God is moving in the hearts of His people!
- » Ask if they need a Bible.
- » If students want to be baptized at Freedom, we must have parent permission. Please ask students to call/text their parent(s) immediately and confirm that they are allowed to be baptized at Freedom.
- » As you exit the Encouragers Room, please give the counseling form to the person at the door collecting these forms. Please share with this person the decisions the students made and whether or not they received permission to be baptized.

MESSAGE THOUGHTS

- » While the speaker is communicating, look for/think about the following things: repetitive words, original language, prescriptive/descriptive, uniqueness of God, CONTEXT, etc.

- » First 5 minutes of message = Write a question

- » Next 15 minutes of message = Write a question

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- » Take time to introduce each student by sharing their name and favorite ice cream flavor.
- » Recap the message in 1-2 sentences. Share with the group.
- » Reread the passage from the session in three different Bible versions (ESV, NIV, CSB, etc.).
- » What is the biggest takeaway and why? What was the biggest challenge you heard?
- » What didn't make sense? What didn't you understand?
- » Did you learn anything new tonight that you have never heard before?
- » How is what we've discussed supposed to change how you live every day?

IN CLOSING

NEED MORE?

Have students open their Bibles and read Psalm 99:3, 5, and Psalm 22:3.

- » After reading these verses AND based on tonight's message, why should we worship the Lord as holy?

- » What do you do in your current life routine to praise God for His holiness?

- » If nothing, what can you start doing tomorrow?

- » Take note of what ideas are mentioned and discuss this same question tomorrow during LifeGroup Session 3. This will provide some accountability for the group as a whole.

- » Open your Bible to Isaiah 6:3 and read this verse as you close your LifeGroup time.

"TO SAY THAT GOD IS HOLY IS TO SAY THAT GOD IS GOD....
HOLINESS IS NOT AN ASPECT OF GOD; HOLY IS WHO HE IS THROUGH AND THROUGH. HIS ATTRIBUTES ARE NEVER AT

S A T U R D A Y M O R N I N G

Open your Bible to Isaiah 6:3. Read this passage. Now, read it out loud wherever you are. This doesn't have to be yelling the passage in the middle of a coffee shop, but it could be just you quietly reading it aloud in your bedroom. There is a difference between reading something in our heads and reading it out loud. Some words take precedence over others; sometimes, a sentence jumps out to us that didn't before.

Look at these words:

And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!"

—Isaiah 6:3

- » Which word(s) are repeated in this verse? Circle them with a pen or a highlighter.
- » Why do you think they are mentioned multiple times?

The purpose of saying "holy" three times in a row is to show the importance of the word. It is repeated to emphasize and elevate the holiness of God. He is not like any human. He is the exact opposite. He's the perfect, unblemished Creator of the universe. We, as humans, are the imperfect, tainted creation that chose sin over obedience. Since we decided that, we will always be unequal with God.

His holiness is part of what makes Him God. It separates Him from every other god and human who has been "a good person."

- » In your words, why do you think we try so hard to be "good people"? Why do we believe that will change our eternal destination?

A by-product of God's holiness is His glory. Why? Because God's holiness shows His power. This is why many Old Testament examples of God's glory revolve around powerful elements such as fire, lightning, thunder and earthquakes. For other examples, read Exodus 19:18; Deuteronomy 5:24-25; and 1 Kings 8:10-11. His glory, according to Isaiah, fills the whole earth. No place on the planet is not affected by or touched by God's glory. Everywhere we look, God's glory is there. Everywhere we go, God's glory is covering that place. This tells us that there is no place we can go to hide from God. He is always present.

God's glory also, like His holiness, shows us that there is a big difference in who we are and who He is. Be reminded that our sin is what separates us from Him. But there is hope. God did something for us out of His glory and holiness. He sent His one and only Son to pay the price that we never could. He sent Jesus to die to forgive us of our sins. This sacrifice is another example of God's holiness and glory.

Have you ever experienced the surrendering of your life to Jesus? When was that, and what is your story? What's keeping you from doing that this weekend if you have not? What's holding you back? Is it because you think you are a "good person"?

Close your devotional this morning in prayer. Pray that God would do a couple things today:

- » Ask God to remind you of His holiness in some way.
- » Ask God to open your heart and mind to what He will teach you.
- » Ask God to forgive you of the sin in your life and bring to light the things you need to repent of.

SESSION 3 | SATURDAY PM

WHAT IS “HOLINESS”?

Holiness is “a fundamental element in the distinctive nature of God as revealed in Scripture and a basic response to His grace on the part of the people of God as they become molded into His likeness.”

—Geoffrey Bromiley

*former professor of church history and historical theology
FULLER THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY*

Did you understand that at all? Let’s break it down into simpler terms:

“God’s holiness means that He is separated from sin and devoted to seeking His own honor.”

—Wayne Grudem

theologian and general editor of ESV Study Bible

Still no? Try this:

JHIGH: Imagine you have a favorite toy that you love and take excellent care of. You keep it clean, handle it carefully, and always treat it respectfully. Now, think about something even more special and important than your favorite toy — something incredibly pure, good and perfect in every way. That’s a bit like what people mean when discussing God’s holiness. God’s holiness means that He is pure, good, and perfect in every imaginable way. It’s like the ultimate goodness and perfection we can’t fully understand. It’s what makes God unique and different from anything else.

HS: Imagine encountering someone extraordinary whose character is so pure and flawless that it stands out in stark contrast to anything else you’ve ever known. This person is good and embodies the essence of perfection without hinting of imperfection or flaw. That quality of absolute purity, goodness and perfection is a glimpse into what people mean when discussing God’s holiness.

God’s holiness epitomizes moral and spiritual excellence beyond our complete comprehension. It’s the standard of perfection against which everything else is measured. When we speak of God as holy, we emphasize His purity, sinlessness and perfection in every dimension. This is what sets Him apart from anything else in existence.

God’s holiness provides the pattern for His people to imitate.

This is the whole point of the passage we are studying this weekend at Freedom. We are called to live our lives directly imitating God’s holiness. “You shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am Holy” (Leviticus 19:2; 1 Peter 1:16). This is very clear in Scripture. There’s no gray area at all.

“Any theology that minimizes God’s holiness and tolerates people’s deliberate sinfulness is a false theology.”

—Warren W. Wiersbe

Bible Teacher and author of “Be Decisive”

SCAN TO FILL OUT THE INTEREST FORM!

This morning, open your Bible to 1 Peter 1. Read verses 14-16. Now, read these verses out loud. Look for what stands out to you when you read it in your head versus when you read it out loud. Take a moment to circle or highlight any words or phrases you want in your Bible.

This passage shows us three points about our holiness:

1. We are called to be holy. Throughout Scripture, it is undeniable that God commands us to live our lives according to what He has modeled for us. This comes from our being obedient and following after Jesus and how He lived while He was on the earth. Our verse for the weekend (Leviticus 11:44) shows us the call to be holy straightforwardly. God's words command us to be holy. We cannot deny the calling and command of God the Father regarding who we are as Christians.
2. Jesus' blood on the Cross covers us. There is no possible way for us to pursue lives of holiness without someone paying the price for our sins. Thankfully, God the Father sent His one and only Son, Jesus, to be the sacrifice that would correct our wrongs. Jesus knowingly went to the Cross to die so that we might live. Since we have been sinful from the beginning, we cannot be holy without that offering. But because we have it, we can now pursue God and His holiness with all our being.
3. We are called to holy living. Not only are we called and commanded to be holy, but we are also called to have holiness in all aspects of our living. What does this mean? It means that whether we are at practice, at school, at our job, driving a car, riding in a car, eating lunch at the lunch table, or simply texting a friend, we are doing all of that through the lens of holiness. If holiness is being pure and unblemished (or sinless), we strive to be pure and innocent in all we do during the day. Holiness isn't just lived out at church, Beach Camp, mission trips, or MDWK. Holiness is something that consumes our everyday journey through life.

As we close out Freedom WKND this morning, list five different ways (action steps) you can model holiness in your day-to-day life, and write them in the spaces below:

ONE	TWO	THREE	FOUR	FIVE
------------	------------	--------------	-------------	-------------

After you have completed the above five actions, do two things to close your time with God this morning:

- » Please take a picture of your action steps and send it to a friend who will hold you accountable.
- » Pray and ask God to remind you of these things throughout your days. Ask God to forgive you of your sin and cleanse you from unrighteousness so you might pursue holiness as Jesus did. Ask God to give you the boldness to live for Him and not live for your flesh and its desires.

NEED MORE?

Many times, at the end of great experiences with God such as Freedom WKND, we can be at a loss for what to do. We want to continue in our growth and follow after the Lord, but we need to figure out where to start. Take time to practically give your students action steps this week as they continue to look at holiness. What are those action steps? Let's put three on the table:

COMFORT

Holiness can provide comfort in a world that seems extremely out of our control. Let's face it: the world around us is also evil and seemingly worsening daily. Holiness reminds us that God controls everything around us. He alone is sovereign. He alone is always right. He alone is always true. What He says, He will do. He fulfills all promises.

Action Steps: When faced with circumstances, situations or emotions that seem out of our control this week, respond with:

- » Stopping at the moment
- » Taking a deep breath
- » Reminding yourself that:
 - Evil is not in control.
 - Corruption is not king.
 - Satan will not have victory.
 - God is, and always will be, worthy of our trust.

REBUKE

If we go back to Isaiah 6 and look at Isaiah's response to the holiness of God, we see that he was blown away in brokenness because he recognized how sinful he was in the face of God's holiness. This is a natural by-product of looking at and seeing into God's perfection; we see our imperfections. Even when sin doesn't appear sinful to us at the moment (or even when we make an excuse for it), in the face of God, we fully realize how sinful we are. We must have a Savior who can do what we can't do for ourselves — rescue us from ourselves.

Action Step: Spend two nights this week studying more about God's holiness and in prayer, ask God to bring into view any and all sin that's in your life. How long should these sessions be? Great question. Spend 30 minutes alone with no distractions, just you, God and your Bible.

CALLING

To say we are holy means that we have been set apart by God's grace for God's purpose. Being set apart means we have a set of commands we must follow now. Can we live our lives doing whatever we want to do? No! We are now called to live in obedience to a holy God. We are called to live aspiring to mirror God's holiness. What does being obedient look like each day?

Action Steps: List things you have learned this weekend that you are commanded to do as you follow God's holiness. These could be practical things such as obeying your parents, sharing your faith, studying God's Word daily, praying for friends, serving, or volunteering in a church ministry, etc. Make it your goal to pursue these items this week.

At the end of the week, sit down with that list and see which areas you accomplished and which areas you need to work on. We must inspect what we expect!

CODE OF CONDUCT

Prestonwood Baptist Church is committed to protecting students in its care, and we will always be above reproach when interacting with students both in and outside of Prestonwood. Unfortunately, our world has become so strained that people are quick to jump to conclusions and assume inappropriate behavior. Our actions and intentions must always be pure and honoring to Christ.

VERBAL CONTACT

Appropriate

- » Verbal praise for achievement or behavior
- » Verbal encouragement
- » Biblically based teaching (non-sexual)
- » Normal, healthy conversation

Inappropriate

- » Compliments or questions relating to physique or body development
- » Sexual jokes, homosexual innuendos, or bathroom humor
- » Profanity or vulgar language
- » Verbal harassment or abuse
- » Individual secrets or special gifts
- » Sexual coaching or conversation

TERRITORY

Appropriate

- » Public one-on-one interaction, as further defined below.
- » Group or public environments

Inappropriate

- » Sitting or lying on a bed with a student
- » Private one-on-one interactions
- » Hazing of any kind

MODESTY

Staff, leaders and students should practice modesty in their appearance and actions at all times. Staff, volunteers and students should be careful to maintain privacy and be alone behind a closed door in any scenario involving undressing, including changing clothes, taking showers, or using the restroom. In overnight settings, sleepwear must be modest.

Consequences: Any violation of these policies will be immediate grounds for dismissal and removal from the Prestonwood activity or event. A violation of one of these policies might not only be misunderstood by staff, leaders, or students, but result in legal consequences from parents.

PHYSICAL CONTACT

Every staff member and volunteer should take the subject of physical contact with the utmost concern and seriousness. Physical contact in any form should not give even the appearance of wrongdoing. The personal behavior of staff members and volunteers in Student Ministry must foster trust at all times. Personal conduct must be above reproach. Student Ministry Leaders are responsible for protecting minors under their supervision from inappropriate or unwanted touch by others.

Appropriate

- » Side hugs, pats on the back and other forms of appropriate physical affection between adults and students are generally suitable in the church setting.
- » Physical contact should be for the benefit of the student, and never be based upon an adult's emotional needs.
- » Physical contact and affection should occur only in observable places or when in the presence of other students, staff members or volunteers. It is much less likely that touch will be inappropriate (or interpreted as such) when physical contact is open to observation.

Inappropriate

Inappropriate touching and displays of affection are forbidden. Any inappropriate physical contact, touching or displays of affection should be immediately reported to a supervisor or the Minister to Students.

The graphic features the word "FREEDOM" in a bold, blocky font. Each letter is filled with a vibrant, multi-colored wavy pattern in shades of blue, purple, pink, and yellow. To the right of the word is a large "25" rendered in a thin, purple outline font. The "2" and "5" are stylized, with the "5" having a thick horizontal base. The entire graphic is set against a solid black background.
